

A NEW SONG ON LUCKEY ELOPEMENT

I am a young fellow that ran out my land & means
In union with bachelors the bottles I often drain'd
I courted a damsel whose mother did me degrade
She call'd me a drakard a clown & a great cndeas

When I was offended I bid the old dame good ble,
I wuk'd at the d-ughter who gave me the same reply
I told her in p-ivate to meet me in mohill fair,
And she never drew back til we met about noon next day

My love wa so loyal & came with such noble speed,
The moment I met her I told her to mount the steed,
The day being advance'd & we having n- time to spare
That she reach'd me abttl & told me to have a dream

When we finish'd the bottle to Carrick we maid our way
We ca l'd to an inn where our dinner got no d-lay.
A stake on the pan & we drank so much congo tea
That our slumbers were ree less until the first lawn of day

Next day when we started by auction I sold my mare
We took an excursion Bellisdare by train
In a second class carriage my lover & I engaged
And the steem was pushing I thought the could fly to spain

One night on my pillow I dream'd that we both were seazed
It was then I consulted my lover that we should cross the
Our ship she weight a neor from S'igo we both set sail
And we dreaded no storm whiist neptune did rule the waves

When we reach'd up to London we though we we'e mighty safe,
When a pair of Police-men on Feggy & I did gaze,
They gave our dis-cription & the couler of both our hair,
For our warrant was issued by tell-graph news that day,

When we were detected they brought us before the mrc
He sign'd comittal & sent us to Carrick J Sl
Her mother they swore I was both a fool & knave
That I spil'd her young daughter & stole all her golb

The bench was consulting her mother nomore could say
They call'd on the dauler tu know what on me she'd swear
She said I was a most loving geatee young swaid
That's able & will ng to work for her night & day,

When I was aquited my lover I did embrace
We went to the Cle-gy who find us in lave & peace
We gave him thare guineas to join us in wedlock bands
Convenient to Catrock as happy as days are long.
